AN OVERVIEW

We are proudly introduce "Koyli Overseas" as one of the leading and largest manufacturers of SS Gratings in India working since 1980 in the field of various SS components. We started the things right from scratches with various SS Components and the experience and expertise to handle the SS material with precision and ease has helped us to develop SS Gratings very early.

Once we entered the SS Grating field we concentrated on few things like Quality and use of variety of SS grades to achieve customer satisfaction through setting the Cost / Quality combination right. Gratings are the most negligent component when it comes to Quality of the Product till we entered the field. Then we completely changed the prospective of looking at Gratings.

We at present providing Stainless Steel 304 Gratings for the Quality cautious peoples and SS- 316 Gratings for the locations that are highly humid during most time of the Year. For rest of the locations across INDIA and abroad we are providing the perfect solution with Stainless Steel 316 grade so that the end result is marvellous and the life of the Grating also increases. This gives immense satisfaction to the Clients and give them a feel of Value for their Hard earned Money.

We are happy with the satisfaction of our Clients and that is the biggest motivational force for us to go even further and delivery Our best each time.....

Feel the real experience
